

WA Family Law Pathways Network and Stopping Family Violence present the following twilight seminar:

Pathways towards accountability: understanding the journey of family violence perpetrators through the service system

In this seminar, Elena Campbell and Rob Hulls from the Centre for Innovative Justice at RMIT University Melbourne will explore some of the opportunities which exist to make interventions with perpetrators a shared responsibility across the service system. The presenters will also explore what elements and intent need to be present in order to make these interventions meaningful and effective - contributing to safety rather than further escalating risk.
