

Curtin University

16 DAYS OF ACTIVISM AGAINST GENDER-BASED VIOLENCE

Emerging Ideas in FDV Research & Practice

New Directions and Shifting Orthodoxies Showcase

Stopping Family Violence (SFV) in partnership with Curtin University invite you to hear about innovative research being undertaken in the family and domestic violence sphere.

This full-day, free event will explore emerging and topical ideas in FDV research including economic abuse, elder abuse, analyses of media discourse, the experiences of MBCP facilitators, and a number of national research projects that aim to increase safety for women and children.

28th of November

9am to 4pm

Curtin University, Bentley
Building 407, Room 208

Email amy@sfv.org.au to register